Apple Visit

I am so excited for our Apple Visit. Please be ready for visitors on March 8 from 2:15-3:00.

Here are some important things to remember:

1. Make Apple feel welcome! -Maybe some signs or qr cods for them to scan to see examples of your student work?
2. Please have a student ambassador ready to greet visitors, maybe saying:
 - a. Hello, welcome to our classroom (shake hands) My name is _____. Today we are learning about _____.
3. Be prepared to share about our Blended Learning Look Fors and our VBOs.
4. Please adjust your schedules so that you are doing something involving Blended Learning in your classroom during this time.

Jeff's Blog

Jeff started a blog called "What My Friend Taught Me". Each week he has someone write a post that is 300 words or less about something they have learned from a friend. I am thrilled to be his guest blogger this week. Click here to read my post and check out the other friendship posts on Jeff's blog.

Staff Meeting Plan for the next few months

Drug Awareness Programs

Here is a tentative grade level schedule for March 17 (Friday before Spring Break). As a part of our wellness curriculum, we have an amazing opportunity to have medical students from the Ohio Pharmacists Association come teach our grade levels about common medicine safety and the dangers of opioid use. The presentations will be age level specific to meet the needs of our students. Here is a tentative schedule below. Please let me know if there are any major problems with your grade level time.

K- 10:15 to 10:35

1- 9:15 to 9:35

2- 10:45 to 11:05

3- 11:45 to 12:05

~~4- 9:45 to 10:05~~
